JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

Correspondence of the Baltimore Gazette.

THE CASE OF PAT WOODS—AN OUTRAGE, AND A CASE WITHOUT PRECEDENT.

WASHINGTON, June 12.

The case of Pat Woods was the all absorbing topic of conversation last evening. The facts concerning the assault upon Congressman Porter are as follows: Porter and a friend were walking along Broad street, Richmond, when they met Woods, who was considerably under the influence of liquor. Porter accosted Woods with "How are you, Pat!" and Woods responded by saying he didn't allow any d—d Radical to call him Pat; after which he knocked Porter down. Porter being followed "to grass" immediately by his friend, and then by two negroes who placed themselves in contact with the bellicose but diminutive Woods. Porter puts his finger in his mouth and hurries to Washington to take measures for soothing his wounded honor. As he stood up in the House to make complaint that little Pat Woods had hit him in the eye, he looked for all the world like an overgrown school boy complaining of one of his mates.—The members listened to Porter's doleful tale; and resolved that Woods must be brought before the bar of the House. The resolution in itself is an outrage, and without precedent. There is no warrant for the step. The personal attack was no invasion of representative rights, no infringement of the privileges of a member of Congress. It is another of the little acts of bectoring over the country to inspire fear of Congress. But the manner in which Woods was arrested was an even greater outrage. He was arrested on a simple telegram and literally kidnapped. Woods' counsel had sued out a writ of habeas corpus, returnable yesterday morning, and it was served on the United States Marshal as he was getting on the Fredericksburg cars at 8:30 p. m. Friday evening. The Marshal had no warrant to detain Woods, yet he refused to obey the writ of habeas corpus, saying he had consulted counsel, and he brought Woods on to Washington. The Richmond Dispatch says Woods was under bonds to appear before Judge Guigon, to answer for the attack on Porter. His arrest by Congress is an infringement of State jurisdiction, and is without precedent in this country. It is an act of petty tyranny, and another expression of the contempt of Congress for the States. If Congress can take this man out of the hands of the proper legal tribunals, and in defiance of the writ of habeas corpus, and place him in a Congressional prison, it has also power to hang him from the statue of liberty on the dome of the Capitol. It may not be very pleasant for Woods to be subjected to Congressional handcuffs, but his case makes excellent material for the fall campaign. If this impudent Radical Congress will persist in sowing dragon's teeth, it must not be surprised at the result.

Another story on Whittemore, the cadet-ship peddler, has leaked out, and can be vouched for as true to the letter Some time before Whittemore resigned to avoid being kicked out of the House, there was a charitable festival of some sort, and tickets of admission were sent to each member of Congress. Whittemore evidently thought he was the only person thus honored, and going over to a neighbor, he endeavored to strike up a trade, Said Whittemore, producing his ticket, "Every member is expected to take one of these tickets and hand over $5. I've got just this one left, and will let you have it." The member addressed had a ticket in his pocket, but said nothing, beyond declining to purchase. Then Whittemore tried another member, with no better result. How many more he may have approached is not known.

A Democratic member of the House proposes to advocate Whittemore's admission on the following grounds: This is a representative government, and Congress has no right to dictate to the people whom they shall select to represent them. The House branded Whittemore as a thief, and with that brand upon him he went back to his constituents. They have re elected him. The inference is that in his district the thieves are in a majority. But the House has no right to say that these thieves cannot be represented. Whittemore must have his seat.

It is understood that the avidity with which the House voted for an investigating committee in relation to Cuban bond lobby and the dispatches in the "Evening Post" was not with a view to prosecuting a newspaper man, but because it was thought the committee might strike Gen. Butler's trail somewhere, and unearth some of the rascalities of which that sly old fox is suspected.

Hon. J. W. Flanagan, United States Senator, has written a letter to his son, Hon. Webster Flanagan, a State Senator of Texas, in which he says he can no longer affiliate with his colleague Morgan C. Hamilton. There is understood to be an open breach between the Texas Senators, and it is believed Mr. Flanagan will be sustained by the President, while Morgan Hamilton will have the sympathy of the devil and Tom Walker.

This story is floating about in the newspapers, and is given without indorsement.

Old Jesse Grant, the postmaster at Covington, Ky., who is father-in-law to Kramer, came to Washington some three months ago to effect his advancement. He reported his intellectual effort in this wise: "I told 'Lyses that he must appoint Kramer to one of them $7,500 missions; but 'Lyses told me he didn't like to do it, because the papers made so much talk about 'pinting his relations to office. Then I ups and tells 'Lyses," said the venerable P. M., "I've got about $25,000 salted down, which I expect to leave behind me; and if you don't give Kramer one of them $7 500 missions I'll leave the whole of it to Kramer's wife, and won't leave you any."

Tom Platt announces the decease of the Republican party. He says the partnership heretofore subsisting between the honest men of it (the free-traders) and the rogues (the protectionists) is dissolved.—He writes its epitaph also. He adds that the business will be continued by Dr. Greeley, "whose specialty is breech presentations."

GOOD FOR GREELEY.—The Tribune speaking of Whittemore, but including the whole tribe of vagabonds now misrepresenting the South in Congress, says: "We utterly and vehemently protest against assuming any more party responsibilities in behalf of the carpet-bag congressmen."

CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATES FOR CONGRESS.

FOR THE SHORT TERM.

HON. R. B. GILLIAM,
OF GRANVILLE.

FOR THE LONG TERM.

HON. S. H. ROGERS,
OF WAKE.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL

HON. WM. M. SHIPP,
OF MECKLENBURG.

CONSERVATIVE COUNTY CONVENTION.

Delegates to the Convention of the Conservative party for Wake county, will bear in mind that next Saturday is the day for meeting in this city for the purpose of nominating candidates for the county offices, and for members of the General Assembly. Let all the township delegates, who can possibly do so, be present, that a full and fair expression of the sentiments of the people may be had.

JUDGE SHIPP'S ACCEPTANCE.

Below we give the letter of Judge Shipp, accepting the nomination as Conservative candidate for the Attorney Generalship of North Carolina.

Judge Shipp needs no introduction at our hands to the people of North Carolina. He enjoys a well earned reputation as a jurist; as a courteous gentleman he stands second to none, and as regards politics, can scarcely be called a politician at all, though, in common with all who love our good old mother State, he feels and sees the necessity of a change in the administration of our State affairs, and, like a true son, has consented to make personal sacrifices, to bring that change about.

The letter is short, and confined to a simple announcement of his acceptance of the nomination, but he promises, hereafter, to make known his views more at large:

RALEIGH, June 16, 1870.

Hon. Thomas Bragg, Chairman &c.

MY DEAR SIR: Your telegram and letter, announcing that I have been selected by the Executive Committee of the Conservative party, as a candidate for the office of Attorney General, was not received until several days after your meeting. This nomination was unsolicited and altogether unexpected on my part. Under the circumstances, I asked for a suspension of my answer for a few days. It is well known that I have never been an active politician; for several years my vocation has led my mind into different channels of thought.—Private considerations likewise required deliberation in this matter. But upon consultation with my friends from different parts of the State, I think it my duty to accept the nomination. I cannot promise my friends a canvass for this office, I must rely, in a great measure, upon their efforts to sustain me in the position in which they have placed me. At a future time, and when I have more leisure, I will express my views fully upon the condition of the country.—It is sufficient for the present, to say, that I endorse the sentiments expressed in the Address issued by the Conservative members of the last Legislature.

Respectfully,

W. M. SHIPP.

ANOTHER OUTRAGE.

A gentleman writing us on business, from Wilkes county, mentions an attempted outrage in that county, as follows:

"We have, at last, a rebellion in Wilkes. Gov. Holden telegraphed Major General J. Q. A. Bryan to appear in Raleigh immediately to join a council of war, composed of all the Generals of the State. No sooner had the General got beyond the borders of the county than a negro attempted to commit a rape on the General's sister. The negro is now in our county jail, and I am informed by Deputy Sheriff Kennedy, that he had to bring him to jail to keep the Republicans of Trap Hill from Ku Kluxing him!

We certainly need a regiment of the General's militia, to suppress the rebellion. Please send the General home."

We think that with a little manipulation and glossing over, the Governor could make this Wilkes outrage a capital item for his proclamation, as another "diabolical act of disguised men, known as the Ku Klux Klan." He might make out either the negro who attempted the act, or the Rads who tried to kill him for it, Ku Klux.—Some of the cases mentioned in his proclamation are based on a much slenderer foundation, indeed, on no foundation at all.

STATE EXPENSES.

We intended to reproduce to-day, an article we published on the 19th of May, in regard to comparative expenses of the State government in the years 1866 '67, and those of 1868 '69, but as we wish to add to the items then published, and somewhat re-arrange the form, so as to present the contrast more readily to the eye, we postpone the article until to-morrow, and shall strike off a number of extra sheets, for any who may desire them.

In this expose we shall not put down a figure but what will be taken from the Auditor's or Treasurer's report, and therefore they may be relied on as truly representing the State expenditures.

FALSUS IN UNO, FALSUS IN OMNIBUS.

As Governor Holden bases his action of organizing a standing army in the State on the alleged cases of outrage by what he terms "the Ku Klux Klan," as enumerated and specified in his extraordinary proclamation of the 6th of this month, we propose a partial analysis of the cases mentioned therein; and if we can show that he has made erroneous or false statements in any of these cases, it will create a strong presumption against the credibility of the whole of them.

The first case is that of Daniel Blue, a colored man, whose wife and five children were murdered, in the county of Moore, some time in January or February, 1869, as the Governor says, "by a band of disguised men, known as the Ku Klux Klan."

It is a matter of official record in Moore county, that one of the Grahams, a brother of the notorious Daniel A. Graham, whose character for veracity even the Governor's organ, the Standard, has recently repudiated, was charged with the murder of Blue's family; was arrested and lodged in jail for months on the charge; that he sued out a writ of habeas corpus before Judge Buxton; that it was proved on the examination, by the testimony of Daniel A. Graham that his father and brother were not of the Democratic or Conservative party, and that the accused got clear on an alibi, proved by his brother Daniel, whose testimony even the Standard acknowledges "is not worth much," while the universal opinion prevails in the neighborhood that Graham was the murderer of Blue's family. We could give facts corroborative of this opinion, but it is not prudent to mention them at this time.

The next is the case of Wyatt Outlaw, who was, undoubtedly, hung by disguised men, but who they were or for what reason they did it, is not known, further than that it was stated he boasted of having shot at the Ku Klux, and threatened to do it again.

Of the murder of Robin Jacobs near Leasburg, we know nothing, nor has the Governor seen fit to enlighten the public as to the grounds on which he declares it the work of "the Ku Klux Klan." We doubt whether he has any better authority for the statement than mere rumor, or the distorted representation of some unreliable informant.

His fourth "whereas," embraces the whipping of twenty-one persons in the county of Caswell, from the 2nd of April to the 15th of May, "by the Ku Klux Klan." We simply do not believe the statement, nor that the names and instances can be given, with the proofs that it was done by "Ku Klux."

The next case the Governor cites is the rape of a colored woman in Lincoln county by fifteen "disguised Ku Klux," while her husband was tied to a tree. We pronounce this statement unfounded, on authority of reliable information from that county, that no such thing had occurred or been heard of in the county. (In this case, as in others, we have no doubt somebody has been playing upon the Governor's credulity.)

The next case is also one of rape on a colored woman, in the same county, "by members of the Ku Klux Klan," which, on the authority just above mentioned, we pronounce totally unfounded.

The next case is also from Lincoln county; that of the shooting of a negro in the night, by some party who met him on the road, who told him it was done by mistake. There is no evidence that the party who shot him was disguised, or white or black.

Puryear, of Alamance, who was found drowned, might have committed suicide by drowning himself; there is not a shadow of evidence to the contrary; only as it becomes necessary to support a theory, to charge that the Ku Klux did it. We think the presumption is in favor of suicide, as the proclamation admits he was half-witted.

Shoffner, poor fellow, who is said to have received $1200 for introducing the military bill into the Legislature, next looms up in the category of Ku Klux horrors; but as he didn't get Ku Klxed, but ran away, as it since appears, to avoid dividing out his per diem and mileage among his creditors, we think he may be reasonably excepted from the list of victims.

The McLeod murder is next alluded to in the proclamation. It is evident they were not murdered by the Ku Klux, for they belonged to the same party that, according to the Governor and the Standard, embrace all the Ku Klux in the State. On the contrary the fact is pretty well settled in the public mind, in that section, that the McLeods were murdered by Daniel A. Graham, the man who proved the alibi for his brother, who was accused of murdering the Blue family in 1869.

We see that we omitted to notice, in its proper order, the murder of John W. Stephens, of Caswell, which, the proclamation says, was committed by persons supposed to belong to the "Ku Klux Klan." But the Governor very well knows that a jury of inquest, assisted by able counsel, and by the brothers and brother-in-law of the murdered man, sitting from Sunday morning to Thursday afternoon, failed to elicit a single fact, or start a suspicion in support of his supposition, to which the brothers testified in a written communication, sent to the Standard for publication, and which that paper refused or failed to publish!

The proclamation then winds up the enumeration by a sort of olla podrida of all sorts of crimes and outrages, promiscuously thrown in for good measure, of which, no doubt the Governor has heard rumors, or had relations by parties who perhaps had to leave their respective localities to avoid punishment for their crimes and misdemeanors; and all ranging over a space of time, it seems, from the "month of January or February, 1869," to the commencement of the political campaign, of 1870.

And upon these alleged cases of outrage, based on proof good, bad and indifferent, principally on the second mentioned, the Governor is going to raise a regiment, put it in uniform, buy it tents, give it arms, and pay it wages, at the expense of the tax payers of the State, and all without authority of law.

We have more to say on this subject, but must postpone it to another occasion.

We take the following from the Petersburg Index in regard to the infamous declaration of war upon our people by Governor Holden:

"The necessity of preventing a fair vote in the coming August elections has not escaped the attention of Holden and the desperate men he leads. They know well that a true expression of the will of the people of North Carolina will overthrow his power, and he is not slow to take measures to smother that expression.

"Rumors have more than once reached us of the plans of the Governor and his supporters. It has been for some time believed in North Carolina, and is scarcely denied by Holden's people that he proposes to try the same old game which has so often been successful for the truly loil thieves who have gained high places in the Southern States, and that Ku Klux outrages would be manufactured and reported to order so as to justify turning upon the defenceless people a brutal militia armed with more than the terrors of mere martial law. The plan, it is understood, was to enroll militia, to declare martial law, to imprison all who should urge the claims to election of any but Holden's partizans, and, if the people could by any means be provoked to resist the negro militia, to call in United States troops, and finally beg for Congressional interference and another reconstruction.—Of course, in that case, Holden and his party would be intrusted with the further reconstruction of the State and so find themselves confirmed in another lease of power.

This programme of operations seemed probable enough—but we had hardly looked to see it so boldly proclaimed as in the following article from the Standard of the 14th:"

(Here follows the article from the Standard entitled "State Troops.").

"Holden's own statement of this intended outrage is strong as any comment can make it.

He knows better than any can tell him that his pretended ku-klux outrages and contempt for law and order are mere figments of his imagination, lies told for his own interest, libels on the people of North Carolina, made to give pretext for his own villainy.

So plain is the object, to have a forced election and to oversawe the people so as to secure such votes as he may desire, that we have hope he may have overshot his mark, and that even Congress will be shocked at the curse they have brought in him and his, upon a high-minded, virtuous and brave people."

CORRUPTION IN THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

The following is from a speech delivered by the Hon. John G. Schumacker of Brooklyn, in the House of Representatives, May 9:

Why, Mr. Speaker, the leaders of the Republican party in the State of New York are bought and sold like sheep in the shambles. I make honorable exceptions, of course. In proof of my assertion I offer the files of the New York Tribune for the last two years. Over and over again Mr. Greeley charges the leaders of that party in our State Legislature with selling out its principles for money. Thirteen Senators out of fourteen were purchased.

But, Mr. Speaker, in speaking of the influence of money upon officials, we have a bright and shining example near us. Look at the other end of Pennsylvania avenue: the President of the United States, the head of the Republican party. Look at the first chosen Cabinet officers of Gen. Grant; almost every man appointed had given money to Gen. Grant, directly or indirectly.

A. T. Stewart, Secretary of the Treasury, gave $10,000; Washburne, Secretary of State, had been instrumental in raising money to purchase Gen. Grant's house in Galena; Borie, Secretary of Navy, had given $10,000 toward buying houses for Gen. Grant; Hoar, the Attorney-General, gave him a library; ex-Gov. Fish, of New York, the present Secretary of State, had contributed $5,000 toward Gen. Grant's houses; Moses H. Grinnell, the Collector of the port of New York, the most lucrative position in the United States, was a large contributor toward Gen. Grant's houses. These facts are all well known, and are a part of the political history of this Administration, and it ill becomes its supporters to charge fraud and corruption upon the Democracy.

From the London Times, June 4.

REVISING THE BIBLE,

A GENERAL INVITATION TO ALL CHURCHES AND SECTS TO ASSIST IN THE WORK.

The arrangements made by the Committee of the Convocation of Canterbury for the revision of the authorized version of Scriptures seem to be exceedingly wise.—There are to be two companies; one for the revision of the Old Testament, which is to begin work on the Pentateuch; and one for the revision of the New Testament, which is to begin work on the three Synoptic Gospels. The Old Testament Company, consisting of the Bishops of St. David's Llandaf, Ely, Lincoln, and Bath and Wells, with four scholars from the Lower House, is to invite a number of scholars of all opinions, churches and sects—ranging from Dr. Pusey to Dr. Davidson—to join it. The New Testament Company, consisting of the Bishops of Winchester, Gloucester, Bristol and Salisbury with the Deans of Canterbury and Westminister, and Canon Blakesley, invites a similar accession to its numbers from all theological schools—from Roman Catholics (for Dr Newman is invited) to Unitarians, who are represented by a learned biblical scholar, the Rev. G. Vance Smith. The object to be aimed at is to make no alteration that is not really of import, and even then to make it as much as possible in the style of our authorized version, and to make none on the authority of any MS. reading for which there is not a decidedly preponderating evidence. The New Testament Company is already at work—the Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol, who is the soul of it, having the work really at heart. Companies constituted as is proposed, if they can only really agree, should command the confidence of almost all Englishmen for their alterations; so that we may at least get rid of all manifest errors, admitted to be errors by all scholars, without undermining the popular reverence for the Bible.

MEMPHIS AND ST. LOUIS RAILROAD.—The Memphis, Avalanche informs us that work on this road from Hopefield, opposite Memphis to St. Louis, was begun a few days ago, and is now in progress. The road is to run along the levee, five feet above high water mark, along the bank of the Mississippi, which will serve the double purpose of a bed for the road and a barrier against the river. The road is to run through Marion and Osceola in Arkansas and New Madrid in Missouri, and connect with the Iron Mountain Road. The State of Arkansas will give it levee bonds to the amount of $25,000 a mile, and $10,000 a mile to iron it with.

RADICALS PLAYING GRANT.

The telegraph reported that in the secret session of the Senate on the St. Domingo job the other day, there was a long and bitterly personal discussion. That discussion appears to have been a little more spicy than we even supposed. The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Times (Radical) writes to that paper as follows:

"WASHINGTON, June 9, 1870.—In executive session last night an effort was made to fix the time for considering the St. Domingo treaty. This brought up the feud, between Messrs. Ferry, Sumner, Chandler and Nye. Some hard things were said on both sides, and Ferry took occasion to make a violent assault upon the President. He accused him of being cognizant of the alleged jobbery of Babcock, and intimated that the whole St. Domingo business was a huge job, got up for the benefit of certain army favorites of the President. He was called to order several times by Thayer, Morton, and others, for using language disrespectful to the President. Senators who witnessed it say that at no time of Johnson's Administration was such a violent assault made on him. Mr. Sumner also made some remarks bitterly opposed to the President. A motion was made to fix next Thursday as the time for considering the treaty, but the ping muss became so great that an adjournment was reached without any action."

CHARLES DICKENS—PARTICULARS OF HIS DEATH.

Concerning the death of Mr. Dickens, it is said he was entertaining a dinner party at his house at Gad's Hill. Mrs. Hogart, who was seated near him, observed evident signs of distress upon his countenance. She then made the remark to him that he would be ill. To this Mr. Dickens replied: "Oh, no, I have only got a headache; I shall be better presently." He then asked that the open window be shut. Almost immediately he became unconscious, and fell back in his chair insensible. He was immediately conveyed to his room, and medical attention summoned. Mr. Dickens still remained unconscious, and never recovered animation. His son and daughters remained steadfastly at his bed side until his death. It is stated that Mr. Dickens has several times of late complained that he experienced considerable difficulty in working because his powers of application were becoming impaired. He also said that his thoughts no longer came to him spontaneously, as in former times. While at Preston he had need of medical aid, and called upon a physician, who warned him not to continue reading, because he was doing it at the peril of his life.

Queen Victoria, immediately after the intelligence of the death of Mr. Dickens was communicated at court, dispatched a special message of condolence to the members of the family of the deceased author. All public institutions in the city suspended business immediately after hearing of the melancholy event.

No arrangements for the funeral of Charles Dickens have yet been made. No inquest will be held on the remains.

The last letter written by Dickens was dated June 8. This contained expressions of the deepest reverence for religion, and is quoted in the newspapers as repudiating any contrary impression which might be derived from accidental expressions in his books.

In his will, Dickens leaves All the Year Round to his son, with many valuable suggestions about its management.

Mr. Dickens' name had been proposed to the Union Club, and balloting on his admission as a member was to have occurred on Wednesday, the 22d instant. It is intimated that his funeral will be private.—Only the usual invitations to friends of the family have been given. The place of burial is not yet decided on.

A HERO OF ELEVEN DIVORCES.—The Akron (Ohio) Times gives the following: On the 11th April, 1866, Samuel Leslie was married at Wooster to a young lady twenty-four years of age, Samuel having reached the mature age of fifty seven. He had possessed ten wives before this, each of whom had obtained divorces from him. She had known him but from the 8th of March to the 11th of April, but he had money; and she laid all the blame upon his former wives, and gave him her young and virgin heart. She lived with him but a short time when she discovered that he was a common drunkard, and he commenced to display his affection for her by hitting her over the head with a shovel, throwing boiling water at her, driving her out of doors at the dead of night, and other such pet acts as were not very pleasant, to say the least. She applied for a divorce, but he pleaded so warmly and made so many promises that she withdrew the application, but he soon afterward renewed his former course, and she again made application. This time the suit was prosecuted, and on Saturday Judge Boynton gave her the divorce and $1,200 alimony. This was the eleventh divorce suit that had been brought against him.

COURIER JOURNALISMS.—This Government is talking of recognizing the belligerent rights of the Cubans. There are hundreds of Cubans in New York who, before asking to be recognized as belligerent, should go home and prove themselves to be such.

Since the moment that John W. Forney got the last dollar of the amount for which he sold himself and his paper to Bullock not a drop of loyal blood untimely shed has stained the soil of Georgia.

A Newark paper denies positively that Secretary Robeson is about to be married. We never doubted from the very start that the girl's brother would ultimately make somebody deny it.

An immense jaw-bone was recently dug up near Sioux City and given to a Radical editor of that place. It may not have been originally the jaw-bone of an ass, but it unquestionably is now.

Stokes and Maynard want Congress to declare that the present Legislature of Tennessee is illegal, but Congress intimates that Stokes and Maynard must hereafter do their own lying.

The New York Standard says the Radical party in that State "has no future." Then all this talk about a lake of fire and brimstone down below is simply a horrid fiction.

A MALE VALEDICTORY.—One of the Illinois journalisms is illustrated in the following paragraph, which appears in the Keitsburg Observer, under the heading of "Obituary."

About two and a half years ago we took possession of this paper. It was then in the very act of pegging out, having neither friends, money nor credit. We tried to breathe into it the breath of life; we put into it all our own money and everybody else's we could get hold of, but it was no go; either the people of Keitsburg don't appreciate our efforts or we don't know how to run a newspaper. We went into the business with confidence, determined to run it out or bust. We have busted. During our connection with the Observer we have made some friends and numerous enemies. The former will have our gratitude while life lasts; the latter are affectionately requested to go to the devil.

THE HOLLYWOOD GHOST AND HIS DOINGS.

RICHMOND, June 13, 1870.

The Hollywood Ghost is now a thrillingly sensational subject of conversation in some quarters. There are all sorts of stories current about this apocryphal apparition, which is said to have been seen by divers persons in Hollywood Cemetery within the past two weeks. It assumes the form of a weeping woman and is variously described as in a dress of black and again as in a dress of immaculate white. Some assert to have observed her bent in grief above a certain grave, others as stoutly aver that she devotes her sorrows to another sepulchre. One version gives her flesh and blood, a local habitation and a name; while another takes her for a spirit disembodied, haunting the spots where her own remains and those of her friends lie mouldering. A romantic story (devoutly believed by our sensational young ladies) is that the mysterious mourner of Hollywood is the surviving fiance of a gentleman who was killed in the Capitol disaster of the 27th of April, that the shock of his sudden death affected her reason, and that now, as often as she can escape the vigilance of her friends, she hurries to the scene where he lies buried and waters the flowers above his breast with her flowing tears. One tragic tale is of a gentleman who heard heart-rending wailings issuing from one of the vaults of the cemetery. He approached and found the vault securely locked upon the outside. The wailings within still continuing he called aloud, offering assistance,—whereupon a fierce woman, with eyes blood shotten, hair dishevelled, and brandishing a pistol, suddenly confronted him and drove him in dismay from the place. Over the portal of this same vault at night, it is said, has appeared the figure of a death's head with crossed bones, with the legend below, "Beware!" all in fiery characters. This last manifestation is ascribed to some profane practical joker, who has taken advantage of the prevailing superstition to work wonders with phosphorus. Certainly it is that Hollywood Cemetery is invested with an awful reputation that it has hitherto escaped, and timid people now refuse to wander in it alone, or to remain after the shadows of the evening begin to fall. The matter has attracted the attention of the police, but they have as yet failed to capture the ghost, as far as I have heard.—Petersburg Courier.

SAMUEL GIBSONS, vs. T. S. WILLIAMSON.

It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant, T. S. Williamson, is a non-resident of the State of North Carolina; it is therefore ordered by the Court, that publication be made in the Weekly SENTINEL, a newspaper published in the city of Raleigh, for six successive weeks, notifying the said T. S. Williamson to make his personal appearance before the Hon. the Judge of the Superior Court for Wake county at the next term thereof, to be held at the Court House in the City of Raleigh, on the 8th Monday after the second Monday in August 1870, then and there to plead, answer or demur to the complaint filed in the said action, in the Clerks office of said Court, at the last term of said Court or the plaintiff will move for judgment pro confesso, awarding to the complaint.

In witness whereof, I hereunto annex my hand and seal, this 15th May, 1870.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, cons derably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

MODERATE CIRCUMSTANCES,

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all th ir really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days Grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this State, who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary assurances presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income to cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the EXCELSIOR forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

FRIDAY, JUNE 17, 1870.

Jno. N. Ramsay, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c. &c.

Once More.—We will say again, that we pay no regard to communications unaccompanied by the author's name, nor to communications written on both sides of the sheet of paper.

New Ads.—Seven capital Ms, telling what good things can be found at Moseley's, who is agent for the Florence Sewing Machine.

Male Academy at Henderson, N. C., by the Messrs. Fetter father and sons, whose reputation as educators stands high in the State and beyond her limits.

The Raleigh Brass Band offers their services for festive occasions, &c.

GOV. VANCE.

This gentleman has, on invitation, agreed to address the delegates to the County Convention, and others who may attend, to morrow, at or in front of the Court House in this city. The speech will come off about 12 o'clock.

The Convention will meet at the ringing of the bell, at about 10 o'clock.

Raleigh Township.—The delegates appointed by the Raleigh Township, to the Conservative County Convention, which meets in this city to-morrow, are requested to meet in Temperance Hall, in the Hollerman building, for consultation, this evening at 8½ o'clock. All the delegates are requested to attend.

Bad Boys.—There are some bad boys in Raleigh; some whose future prospects, we think, would be enhanced by a little whole some discipline at parental hands. We saw one of these young hopefuls yesterday, that had knocked over somebody's baby wagon on the side-walk, thrown a stone at the nurse, and all the time "cussing" like a Chief Magistrate. Finally his mother got hold of him, and the last we saw, she was leading him round the house; and from the expression on her countenance, we think the little rascal was about in the condition of the reprobate class spoken of in scripture, "whose end is to be burned."

Correction.—In the report of the proceedings of the nominating Convention of the county of Alamance, Capt. Sydney Thompson is named as candidate for the House of Representatives; whereas it should have been James E. Boyd, Esq. Capt. Thompson was the nominee for County Treasurer.

Orthographical.—We do know how to spell tolerably well, we think, except when we are spelling with a bad pen or blunt pen cil. So when we attempt to write "tower" and spell it "tour," we can only throw ourself upon the generosity of the reader, and, in the frequently used apology of espistolarians, beg the reader to "excuse bad spelling, as we were writing with a bad pen." (Those who did not discover the error alluded to, in an article in yesterday's Sentinel, needn't laugh now that it is pointed out to them.)

Down in the Mud.—Passing in front of the market house to-day about noon, we saw a horse attached to a country wood wagon, lying sprawling in the mud of that famous locality. With considerable effort on the part of his driver, he was got upon his pegs and slowly wended his way southward.

That horse needs medicine, and we prescribe for him a dose of 4 lbs. of hay, dampened with 3 lbs of corn or oat meal mixed with it, to be taken three times aday, until plowing time is over.

A Pretty Front.—There is not a more agreeable combination of bricks, iron frames, plate glass and paint, to be found in this or any other city, than is presented by the front of the new store, now about being finished off, N. E. corner of Martin and Fayetteville streets, for B. P. Williamson, Esq. Every one passing stops to look at and admire it. Clawson is now putting on the finishing coat of paint, and when completed, it might not blush to be compared to some of the fine fronts on Broadway, New York.

Swift Galloway, Esq., is the Conservative nominee for the Senate in the 18th district.

There is a letter for Mrs. E. J. Taylor, of Raleigh, in the Wilmington Post Office held for postage, also one for Miss Emily Blacknall, of Kittrells.

Taxes.—There is a good deal of poetic jingle and a mine of truth in the following quaint lines, which a friend has cut from some newspaper and handed to us. We advise our readers to commit the lines to memory and repeat them to the Radical candidates, when they come round soliciting their votes.

FOR DELEGATES TO TAX THEIR WIT UPON.

TAXES! TAXES!

Taxes! taxes! nothing but taxes!!!
Taxed upon all that man can eat;
Taxed on our flour and taxed on our meat.
Taxed upon all that covers his back,
From his cotton shirt to his broadcloth black.
Taxed on whatever is pleasant to see,
To hear or smell, to feel or to be.
Taxes! taxes! nothing but taxes!!
Grinding our noses as sharp as axes.

AND WHAT ARE THE TAXES FOR.

Why, the Freedman's Bureau to keep in repair,
So that radical loafers can each have a chair.
And a chance for the pickings and stealings there!
Taxes! taxes! republican taxes!!
Taxed on the coffin and taxed on the crib,
On the old man's shroud and the baby's bib,
To pamper the bigot and fatten the knave,
Taxed from the cradle plump into the grave.

AND WHAT ARE THE TAXES FOR?

Why, to buy all the rogues they can find far and near
And give to each thief all his stealings in clear!
Taxes! taxes! republican taxes!
For rich men to shirk and for poor men to pay,
From the pittance they earn by the work of the day,
By the strain of the muscle, the sweat of the brow,
By the spade and the trowel, the axe and the plough.

AND WHAT ARE THE TAXES FOR.

Why, the old constitution to knock all to smash,
And fill every place-holder's pockets with cash.
* * * * * * *
Hurrah for the taxes, the jolly old taxes!
Come, men, get your noses all ground sharp as axes—
Cry Sumner and Stevens, Ben Butler and Wade,
And all our tax bosses that taxes have made—
You "mudsills" to Yankee philanthropy sold,
Be quiet—obey—and your saucy tongues hold.
* * * * * * *

FOR THAT'S WHAT THE TAXES ARE FOR.

The nose grinding taxes!
The Republican taxes!!
The Radical taxes!!!
The Jacobin taxes!!!!
THAT'S JUST WHAT THESE TAXES ARE FOR.

"Judge."—Several persons have asked us how Mr. Lewis P. Olds came to be called "Judge." We will answer by the relation of an anecdote apropos to the question.

On an a certain occasion when Mr. Olds was to be introduced to an audience by a gentleman whose acquaintance with him was limited, the gentleman asked him, privately, by what title he should announce him.

"As Judge Olds," responded Mr. Olds,

Afterward some friend informed the introducer that he had made a mistake; that Mr. Olds was not a Judge and never had been; whereupon the gentleman approached Mr. Olds, after he had finished his "speech," and said, "A friend informs me that I made a mistake in introducing you as Judge Olds; did I misunderstand you?

"No; that was what I said," replied Mr. Olds.

"And are you, or have you been a Judge?" asked the gentleman.

"No," answered Mr. Olds, "I have never exactly been a Judge, but they talked of running me for Judge last year; and the boys about Raleigh have called me "Judge," ever since."

We hope this anecdote will serve as an answer to all inquiries on this subject, while at the same time it exemplifies the manner in which titles are sometimes acquired.

Premium List.—Mr. J. J. Litchford, Corresponding Secretary of the North Carolina Agricultural Society, has laid on our table a pamphlet containing the list of premiums offered by the Society for the 10th Annual Fair, to be held in this city on the 18th, 19th, 20th and 21st of October next.

The pamphlet contains all necessary information in regard to the officers of the society, regulations in regard to exhibition of articles, &c., and in glancing over the premium list, we are prepared to say that it is a very liberal. It is neatly gotten up at the Book and Job office of Messrs. Nichols and Gorman, and has several pages of advertisements by some of our enterprising business men.

Sunday School Wreath.—We have on our table a copy of the "Sunday School Wreath," of the sixth edition, published by the Southern Publishing Company, Raleigh, 1870. This little volume contains choice gems of Sunday School songs, the tunes to which are familiar in almost every neighborhood, and the price is so low that every Sunday School in town and country can obtain a supply for school and visitors. Orders addressed to John Armstrong, Raleigh, will meet prompt attention. It contains over 100 pages, well printed and neatly bound, and is sold at $9 per hundred, or 12½ cents each. It is not sectarian, but suited to Sabbath Schools of any and all denominations.

The Medical Women.—The question of admitting women to the medical colleges caused a sharp debate at the meeting of the Pennsylvania Medical Convention at the close of last week. Although the question was not decided, it is reported that all objections to women practitioners will be formally withdrawn. So orthodoxy of cure in sex appears likely to be swept away.

Dear Sir:

In acknowledging receipt of check for Two Thousand Dollars, being the amount of Policy upon my Husband's life, I regard it my duty to assure you of my appreciation of your promptness in placing the same in my hands, and testify in behalf of your Company in regard to its fidelity in the faithful performance of its contracts. With many good wishes for the prosperity of the Company, and as a still farther testimony and appreciation of the same, I have applied for a Policy of Five Thousand Dollars on my own life.

With much respect,
I remain,
Very truly, your obd't serv't.

There are rumors of other Cabinet changes.

Senate.—A bill was reported giving a $500 000 subsidy to the California and Australia Steamship line, contingent upon Australia giving the same amount. The bill establishing a Department of Justice passed. The bill which passed the House regarding currency was read the first and second time, and referred to the Committee on Finance. Robertson asked to take up the bill removing political disabilities, covering 5,000 names.—Sumner said the bill was of a too wholesale character. It was postponed by a vote of 28 to 23. The franking privilege question was resumed. An amendment continuing the present arrangement for exchange and delivery of newspapers passed.

The House ordered Woods to Richmond to testify in accordance with the recommendation of the Judiciary Committee. The balance of the day was consumed in Western Railroad matters.

NEW YORK.

New York, June 16.—Princess Editha Montez has sued the female brokers Woodhull and Claflin, for a $3,000 ring and $2 000 in money which she says, she deposited with them.

THE NORTH CAROLINA COTTON GIN THE BEST AND CHEAPEST.

The undersigned would respectfully inform his friends and the public, that he is manufacturing the above Gin from the very best materials, on the most approved plan with an eye to durability and service. These Gins are warranted or the money will be returned.

After 25 years experience and the general satisfaction of my former patrons, I feel confident of pleasing any that may favor me with orders as this Gin is equal to any made North or South, and freight may be saved by purchasing at home, and ready redress had if the Gin does not give satisfaction.

ORDERS SOLICITED EARLY TO INSURE DELIVERY IN TIME.

Special Notices.

PILLS are invaluable to all who suffer from Bilious and Liver Complaints, Sick Headache, Loss of Appetite, Drowsiness, Giddiness, and especially Indigestion, which prevails to an alarming extent in this country at the present day. By the judicious use of TUTT'S LIVER PILLS the bowels may be kept perpetually in a natural condition of good health. They do not act as merely temporary relief; they keep the human system in a state of sound and vigorous health, by easily and almost imperceptibly cleansing it of all impurities. It braces and tones the physical and mental organization.

PAIN KILLER
PERRY DAVIS'S
1840 1870

The Great Family Medicine of the Age.

THIRTY YEARS

Have elapsed since the introduction of the Pain Killer to the public, and yet at the present time it is more popular and commands a larger sale than ever before. Its popularity is not confined to this country alone; all over the world its beneficial effects in easing the "ills that flesh is heir to," are acknowledged and appreciated, and as a PAIN KILLER its fame is limited to no country, sect nor race. It needs only to be known to be prized.

Thirty Years is certainly a long enough time to prove the efficacy of any medicine, and that the PAIN KILLER is deserving of all its proprietors claim for it, is amply proved by the unparalleled popularity it has attained. It is a sure and effective remedy. Sold by all Druggists.

Price 25 cts, 50 cts, and $1.00 per Bottle.

GENERAL AGENTS,

CHARLOTTE N. C.

THE EQUITABLE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (sum assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than Thirteen Million Dollars.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" after the first once begin to pay them at all; but they do not begin to pay until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends, at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals four hundred and thirty-six dollars paid at the end of four years, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

DUNN'S PATENT COTTON TIE.

We beg to announce that we have been appointed Sole Agents for the sale of the above Patent Tie in Virginia and North Carolina.

The satisfaction it gave last season wherever used, warrants us in recommending it as the best no yet introduced. It combines the advantages of great strength, great simplicity and ease in manipulation, besides the difficulty of taking up the slack of the band in the operation of baling, is entirely obviated.

We shall have our supply direct from the manufacturer in England, for delivery in July or August, as I at lowest market rates.

A New Discovery!!

Phalon's

"VITALIA;"

or,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

Phalon's "Vitalia" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

The Vitalia is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

Paris Exposition, 1867.

Medal Awarded by the

THE AMERICAN COMBINATION Button Hole & Sewing Machine

Has been honored with the highest award in premiums and diplomas wherever entered for competition at fairs and exhibitions held during the past season.

THE SIMPLICITY, EASE AND CERTAINTY with which this machine operates, as well as the uniform excellence of its work, throughout the entire range of sewing, in Stitching, Hemming, Felling, Tucking, Cording, Braiding Quilting, Gathering & Sewing on, Overseaming, Embroidering on the Edge, and its Beautiful Button-Hole and Eyelet Hole Work.

Place it unquestionably far in advance of any other similar invention.

It is also the CHEAPEST intrinsically, as well as the BEST, since it is really TWO MACHINES combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity,) making either the Lock Stitch, or Button-Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparitively noiseless, easily understood, and in a word, it combines with these ADVANTAGES, EXCLUSIVELY ITS OWN, THE MOST DESIRABLE QUALITIES OF ALL OTHERS.

The public are invited to examine this remarkable machine at Miss Townsend's Boarding House, (Mrs. Thompson's old stand,) Fayetteville Street, and at Watson's Photographic Gallery.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 13th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

Mowry, Gauger and Inspector Coal Oil Philadelphia; Evans, Stout & Davis Dealers in Petrolium 104 Arch St., Philadelphia.

Testimonials without number from citizens of this, as well as those of other States might be published, but the above is sufficient. Any person having the Right can make 6 to 10 bbls., of the Fluid in an hour.

ROCKBRIDGE ALUM SPRINGS, VA.

Open May 15th, 1870.

THIS FAVORITE AND CELEBRATED Watering Place is now in complete order for the reception of guests. Important improvements have been added to the buildings since the establishment passed into the hands of the present proprietor, and it is his purpose to keep it in a style not surpassed anywhere in Virginia. The waters of these special springs either cure or greatly relieve most cases of Scrofula, Incipient Consumption, Chronic Bronchitis, Chronic Laryngitis, Chronic Pneumonia, Chronic Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Painters. They are also a great value in those affections which are peculiar to the female constitution, and as an appetizer, a tonic and general restorative, they are, perhaps, unrivalled amongst mineral waters. The proprietor will have provided for the lawns and ballroom a first-class band of music, and in general all the sources of amusement and recreation usually found at our best summer resorts will be at the command of the guests at "ROCKBRIDGE ALUM." The place is within eleven to thirteen hours of Richmond, Washington, Baltimore, &c., by rail, all in daylight. Passengers leave the cars of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad at Goshen Depot and new and elegant stage coaches, passing rapidly over a smooth and level road of only eight miles, set down the visitors at the Springs to tea.

A. BALDING'S

PATENT GLASS SUBMERGED

DOUBLE-ACTING FORCE PUMP.

SUBSTITUTE FOR A FIRE ENGINE.

THIS Pump will pump 30 gallons of water per minute, will never out out the packing, has no friction, no water ever stands in its pipes to freeze, and is less liable to get out of order than any other pump now used. It can be set up in a short time by any ordinary mechanic.

The No. 3 pump for yard wells will be sold at from $20 to $30, capable of throwing 30 gallons of water per minute. The price of No. 2 for railroad stations, throwing 60 gallons per minute, will be given upon application.

Having the exclusive right to this pump for the States of North and South Carolina, and having established a factory for the manufacture of them at Wilson, N. C., I will receive orders for them at Wilson, and will ship them by Express C. O. D., or, if the money is sent me, by the regular freight. The number of feet in the depth of the well must be given in all cases

MR. J. L. KITCHIN:

DEAR SIR:—We certify that the "Balding Pumps" put up by you in the town of Scotland Neck are a perfect success. They pump very rapidly, and by attaching hose, will throw water from 40 to 60 feet and would prove invaluable in case of fire.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

DR. E. BURKE HAYWOOD,	Examining Physician.
Gen'l. S. B. BUCKNER,	Manager Southern Dep't.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies. Its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and certified by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."
